

Transport Asset Holding Entity Operating model

Transport Asset Holding Entity (TAHE) NSW's operating licence is granted by the Minister for Transport and authorises TAHE to perform the functions required to acquire, develop, finance, divest and hold assets.

The Treasurer and Minister for Finance and Small Business are the shareholders of TAHE and annually agree performance expectations through the Statement of Corporate Intent.

